THE BOULEVARD PROJECT

It is really commendable the manner in which the people have taken hold of the boulevard proposition which was recently started by the Commercial Club at the suggestion of Mr. N. N. Nunn. The meeting which was held in the club room yesterday was a success in every particular and much good is bound to result. The committees which were appointed have expressed a willingness to go right to work and in a fortnight the proposed boulevard from Provo to Orem will be more than talk.

A route committee has been appointed and their work will be to establish the best route. The people living along the three roads will probably have a little trouble in deciding which way they desire the boulevard to be run. The best route should be decided on and all work for the good road. The plan deserves success. Here's to the boulevard.

MUST BUY THE HOME PAPER

A score or more of young girls at Beaverville, Ind., have formed a league to promote refinement among young men and, among other things, have resolved to marry no man who drinks, smokes or chews and who does not take the home paper. Drinking is considered the chief evil, smoking and chewing come next, while the young women assert that when a man does not take the home paper it is evidence of a want of intelligence and that he will prove too stingy to provide for a family, educate his children and encourage institutions of learning in the community.

AN EXPLANATION.

Inasmuch as some misunderstandings have arisen concerning the recent friction between the '09 and college classes of the Brigham Young University, it is deemed by the two classes and the student body as a whole, advisable to make the following explanations:

1. That we now are and always have been opposed to hazing in any form whatsoever.
2. That no ill feelings of any notice are now existing or ever have existed between the two classes involved. The whole affair was merely an expression of a superabundance of class patriotism.
3. That there was at no time, on the part of the participants, any indication of a lack of the highest self-control. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that at a time—from the point of view of the onlooker—when the rivalry seemed to go beyond the bounds of propriety, two representatives from each class met and at the mere suggestion that their action might bring the school into disrepute, called the whole affair off and the members of each faction went peacefully to their class rooms.
4. That we deny all reports to the effect that any student was seriously injured, or that the student body at heart is not loyal to the highest ideals of the institution.
